Charities to benefit

By EDITH BEVIN

A generous Territorian will today give away $100,000.

Businessman Tony Milhinhos will donate the money to three charities.

He is believed to have given about $500,000 to charity over the past 20 years.

"I came here from Portugal in 1967 with nothing," the multimillionaire said yesterday. "If I waited until the day I didn't have any debts to start sharing with people in need I would be in my grave."

"I know a lot of businesses are hurting but there are people in this town who are extremely well off who never stop to think about those who aren't."
